

Media Advisory

Mizel Institute Honors Denver Mayor Michael B. Hancock with 2016 Community Enrichment Award

Denver, CO – The Mizel Institute will host its 25th annual dinner gala on Wednesday, May 25th to honor the 2016 Community Enrichment Award recipient, Denver Mayor Michael B. Hancock, and to provide financial support to the Institute’s two distinct programs, the Mizel Museum and the Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab® (CELL®).

The Community Enrichment Award is presented each year to an individual for their outstanding contributions to the community. Mayor Hancock was selected due to his tremendous leadership, civic engagement, and long-time service to Denver and Colorado. As both a pioneer and devoted public servant; Mayor Hancock epitomizes a spirit of determination and advancement, and it is befitting to pay tribute to this great pillar of our city. As we honor Mayor Hancock, we will reflect upon the importance of ingenuity, innovation, and commitment to our community – characteristics Mayor Hancock has exemplified through his tenure with the city of Denver.

Past recipients of the Community Enrichment Award include Pat Bowlen, Sharon Magness Blake, W. Dean Singleton, Norman Brownstein, Anna and John J. Sie, Gov. John Hickenlooper, and A. Barry Hirschfeld.

Event Details

Where: Wings Over the Rockies Air & Space Museum, 7711 East Academy Parkway, Denver, CO 80230

When: Wednesday, May 25th, 2016

RSVP: Media credentials are REQUIRED for admittance. RSVP to (303) 844-4000 x10 by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 20, 2016

About the Mizel Institute

The Mizel Institute is a nationally recognized institution with two distinct programs in the Denver area: the Mizel Museum and the Counterterrorism Education Learning Lab (CELL). For over 30 years these programs have helped fulfill the Institute’s mission of providing experiential learning through cultural and educational programming.

Contact:

Laila Shihabi
Marketing Manager
Mizel Institute
303.844.4000 x 10
lalshihabi@thecell.org